Emanuele Costantino

Lab 05

Question 1.6

The code is adding up by two every time it loops back around. The reason we see letters is because it is being represented in hexadecimal. The letters represent numbers (A-F = 10-15).